

Al Prompts for Busy Marketing Managers

(Note: As AI changes quickly, try these prompts in both ChatGPT and Bing Chat.)

Ideal Prompt Format (Source)

- Provide context
- State a specific goal
- Provide a specific format
- Break task into smaller tasks
- Give examples

Example:

Act as an expert business consultant who assists marketing managers in choosing the best social media automation platforms. Give me a list of 10 platforms in the following table format, sorted by total number of ratings:

Name of Company | URL | Monthly price | Average G2 rating | Number of G2 ratings | Average TrustPilot rating | Number of TrustPilot ratings

For example:

XYZ Social Media Platform | https://www.xyzsocialmediaplatform.com | $100/mo | 4.3 | 125 | 3.5 | 23

The Importance of Iteration

The key to getting knock-your-socks-off results from AI is iteration. You can make your results even better — more unique, more nuanced, and more relevant — with follow-up prompts. Treat the initial response as a draft. AI chatbots will remember your conversation, so you can follow up with prompts like these:

- Tell me more about #3.
- Please rewrite, including facts that most people don't know.
- Please list 10 objections that a(n) [audience] might have to this.
- Please rewrite, incorporating this additional context: [insert new information]
- You can even ask AI to critique itself!
  - o Please analyze your logic and suggest improvements.
  - o Give me a list of prompts to ask you to help improve this content.
  - Suggest reasons why this won't work.

If You're Not Sure How to Write a Prompt, Just Ask the Al

I want to [task and details]. Please tell me how to ask you so I get the [best, most comprehensive, most relevant, etc.] results.

General Hints

- Role prompting: Imagine you are a brilliant [subject matter expert] (Key for giving the AI context. Use every time.)
- Chain-of-thought prompting: Please think step by step.

  (Added to the beginning or end of a complex prompt, this can reduce or eliminate inaccuracies.)
- Learn this. Learn the data in this [chart, table, list, etc. paste in data]. I would then like you to... (Gives more accurate results, based on real-world data.)
- Check for understanding. Do you understand?

  (Use in complex, multi-step prompts to be sure Al understands each step before moving on.)
- Require more info. You must ask questions before answering. (Helps to focus the response.)
- Keep going. Are there more? (Get more options. Use frequently.)

Content Research

- Blog angles based on existing article: Please summarize this article, then suggest 5 unique angles based on it with SEO-friendly titles: [URL]. This works great in Bard. You may need to paste article in for Chat.
- New ideas: Please give me 5 unique angles for a blog post about [topic] based on current events or recent research. (Currently works best with Bard.)
- Pillar and cluster ideas: Please give me 10 semantically related topics for [keyword].
- Blog titles: Write 10 blog post titles for this topic.
- Idea generation: List 10 things [target audience] may not know about [topic or keyword].
- Info gathering: Please list five quality sources for information about [keyword or description].
- Research: Find 5 peer-reviewed studies on the effectiveness of [insert topic] and summarize.
- Interview questions: Give me 10 questions to ask this person: [insert LinkedIn profile or bio]
- Fact checking: Please act as a/n [topic] expert and fact-check the following: (note: no Al is 100% reliable, but can alert you to potential problem areas)
- Simplification: Please explain this [table, concept, etc.] so an everyday reader can understand it.
- Including specific research facts: (Source with great example)

You are a writer and an expert in [topic]. Your task is to [specific description of task]. Write a [blog post, informational article, summary, etc.] about [topic or title]. Take inspiration from the following [research*]. Include the seedwords: [seedwords].

```
*Research = [- fact
- fact, etc.]
Seedwords = [list of keywords separated by commas]

Content Creation

- Match style: Write a [blog post, brief, etc.] in the style and tone of this sample: [paste sample] (For best results, the sample should be the same type of content as the one you're requesting.)
- Ghostwrite: Write in the style of... [Dave Barry, John Oliver, Yoda] (Good for ghostwriting as executives or internal SMEs.)
- Identify content gaps: Identify the content gaps in this article: [paste sample] (Bing Chat or Google Bard may be better for this prompt than ChatGPT)
- Create great prompts (interactive prompt creator): (Source)

I want you to become my Prompt Creator. Your goal is to help me craft the best possible prompt for you. Let's use the following process:

- 1. Ask me what the prompt should be about. I will provide my answer, but we will need to improve it through iterations by going through the next steps.
- 2. Based on my input, please generate 3 sections.
  - a. Revised prompt (provide your rewritten prompt, which should be clear, concise, and easily understood by you),
  - b. Suggestions (provide suggestions on how to improve the prompt), and
  - c. Questions (ask any questions on what additional information is needed from me to improve the prompt).
- 3. We will continue this iterative process, with me providing additional information and you updating the prompt in the Revised prompt section until it's complete.
- Get ideas from existing content: Let's think about this step by step.
  - Step 1: Summarize this blog post: [paste sample]
  - Step 2: Analyze the blog post.
  - Step 3: Give three unique angles for a new blog post based on the information in this one.
- Create research-backed drafts for inspiration: Generate an article about [topic]. Include little-known facts, recent breakthroughs or insights in this space, backed by science or peer-reviewed research studies. (Source)
- Improve content. Make it [catchier, more exciting, more creative, more compelling any adjective you can think of].
- Make content scannable. Rewrite as bullet points.
- Generate examples. Please give me a real-life example for [topic].
- Use analogies: Please explain [topic] with an analogy.
- Lighten up: Please use puns or wordplay.
- Find quotes: Generate a list of good quotes about [topic].
- Create a table: Please format this as a table OR Please create a table in the following format:
- Generate a FAQ from SERP: Create a list of [10] frequently asked questions about [keyword] and provide answers for each one of them considering the SERP and rich result guidelines.
- Generate Meta description: Please write a meta description for this blog post. It must be 160 characters or fewer: [insert blog post text]
- Get perspective: (Source with great examples)
  - Let's think about this using examples.
  - Let's think about this using analogies.
  - Let's think about this from a reverse perspective.
  - Let's think about this from multiple angles.
  - Let's think about this from a/an [broader, impact, historical, economic, etc.] perspective.
- Anticipate potential objections/arguments:
  - Please argue against this statement: [statement that differs from your thesis]

Challenge the dominant perspective on [topic].

Formatting

- Use markdown (headings and subheadings), bullet points, bold text, etc.
- Don't include pre text or post text. (Gives more concise responses)
- Please respond with a table.
- Please respond with bullet points.

Summarize an article

- Please summarize this article: [insert URL or paste text]
- Please summarize this article in [1 sentence, 1 paragraph, bullet points, etc.]
- Summarize a YouTube video (Note: to download the transcript from a YouTube video, click the "three dot" menu beneath the video, then "Show transcript")
  - Entire transcript: Please remove the time stamps from this transcript and standardize punctuation: [paste transcript]
     (Note: Depending on the text limits of the Al tool, you may need to do this in sections.)
  - Follow up prompts:
    - Summarize this video transcript using bullet points.
    - Write an executive summary of this transcript.
    - Please break out the individual speakers in this transcript.
- Create an SEO-focused outline: Write a blog outline using these keywords in the subheadings: [list keywords separated by commas]
- Improve Customer and Product focus:
  - Think like a [target audience: CMO, optometrist, real estate professional]. What [topic] issues are you concerned about?
    - Follow up prompt: How can [product or service] help me with these concerns? (This works best when you prime the Al first with text from your website.)
  - Write a list of questions people are asking about [topic or product].
  - What do people think about [product]?
  - Please critique this text from the perspective of [target audience]. Does this make the [feature or product] sound appealing? Is there anything else you would want to know about the [feature or product] before considering a purchase? [Paste sample]
  - You are a [target audience]. What are 5 questions you would like to ask after reading this? [Paste sample]
